Central Point School District 6 Social Media Commenting Guidelines

Central Point School District 6

Our D6 social media pages will focus on celebrating and supporting our schools, students, and staff, as well as sharing important news and communicating event information. We encourage you to share your support, connect with other supporters, and visit frequently for news and updates.

While everyone is welcome and encouraged to comment, our first priority is to protect students, staff and community members. Comments and/or posts in violation of these “Commenting Guidelines” may be removed.

We do not allow, public content, in any manner, to be posted or displayed through a district sponsored social media site that makes a student identifiable in a negative manner or that violates student privacy. Any content posted by the public that violates this policy will be removed immediately. *Exception to this policy is if the publisher of said content has legal guardianship or parental rights of student identified or identifiable.

We have a zero-tolerance policy for cyberbullying and/or posts or comments that are discriminatory, political, racist, sexist, abusive, profane, violent, obscene, spam, contain falsehoods or are wildly off-topic, or that libel, incite, threaten or make ad hominem attacks on students, employees, guests or other individuals. The District also invokes an “off topic” policy with the right to delete or hide off topic comments on non-related posts.

We also do not permit messages selling products or promoting commercial or other ventures. We do not allow the posting of photos or tagging of photos by the public. You participate at your own risk, taking personal responsibility for your comments, your username and any information provided. We reserve the right to delete comments or topics and ban repeat violators, if needed. Please be aware that all content and posts are bound by Facebook’s Terms of Use.

Central Point School District 6 encourages user interaction on its social pages, but is not responsible for comments or wall postings made by visitors to the page. Additionally, the appearance of external links, as posted by fans of this page or other Facebook users, does not constitute endorsement on behalf of Central Point School District 6. In most if not all cases, external links posted by fans will be removed without notice. You should not provide private or personal information (phone, email, addresses etc.) regarding yourself or others on this page. Any posts or comments containing personal information of this nature will be deleted.
